Pills of the Alchemist 3.02.12.rar (F99AAC19) (Installed). Bloody Dragon Bones 2k by. Dragon Bones 2k v1.6. The only thing that is seen is a stone dragon.. Wanted to suggest a small change to the text in the description of this (self-inflicted) damage that's happening on the Sun Up, 17 Sept edition of RTÉ News : "The government says they want Ireland to be a low tax, low regulation economy. Some business leaders and analysts say the move could have very serious consequences for the economy." 1. The final sentence of the description could easily be taken as a random throwaway from the 'expert' analysts who support them. I think they made the assumption that such a statement would instantly connote Fianna Fail. I just watched the programme at around lunchtime and the text was as it had been in the previous editions. Have only seen the programme maybe 2-3 times but always at the same time. No technical problems I'm aware of. Just watched the programme at around 12pm it seems to be fine, I think it was supposed to be 3:30pm. Could have been a technical problem - not sure though Just watched the programme at around lunchtime and the text was as it had been in the previous editions. Have only seen the programme maybe 2-3 times but always at the same time. No technical problems I'm aware of. I remember the same thing happened to me. While following the news headlines and commentary on Facebook, I was watching two videos, one for over a minute, one for less than a minute. For the first time since the election, the commentary (whilst not entirely audible) was blank. I checked the timing on both the video and the commentary and it was the same. One lasted over a minute and the other had the usual 5-6 seconds. The board on the website was very speedy. The BBC Irish feed was impeccable. The only change from the previous Thursday is that the call to Farage came from Englishman NEPAD and he was more likely to be heard as he was speaking English.Love Bite
